

dont let these big companies influence commonsense! it might be differnt, if these companies were own locally. but, only a few own these tv and radio stationsand dont care about local needs. sincerely kevin conley